Hello Rhona and Terri

There is some confusion here for me (which isn't unusual) but I think that I have it figured out. The reason that I did not have anything on this Jackson family is that I have his name as Camyer Halstead Jackson (rather than Halstead Cameron). The record shows that Camyer Halstead Jackson married Judith Asenath Bodden Dec 5, 1895. He was the son of Joseph William Jackson and Rachel Jane Eden. She was the daughter of Tharp Bodden. I am assuming that this is William Tharp Bodden married to Jane Miriam Ebanks but I don't know for sure.

Attached are pictures of our cousin Harriet's goodbye scenes today at Rose Hills Memorial Park (Whittier) or should we rather say au revoire? Too bad we couldn't also have captured from the service the moving testimonials of her life and her loving marriage to Stu, whose off-the-cuff remarks were among the most touching.

The heritage Harriet exemplified, of love, devotion, hospitality, service, faithfulness and laughter was doubtless born out of the faithful witness provided by her own loving mother, grand-mother, etc. but surely also of her own fierce personal faith.

Some of the people there today were unaware that Harriet and Stu met during WW II while both were serving their country in the U.S. Navy. As 'taps' was played graveside, the honor guard which presented the flag to Stu, enabled them to grasp that further honorable dimension of Harriet's long (88) life.

The luncheon following the more formal proceedings was an opportunity to engage with Dr. Partridge, who provided the younger people at the service with such an eloquent Biblical perspective on death. (He expressed great interest in my 35 (or so) visits to the Holy Land - a place he'd never visited despite having once been a professor of Biblical Hebrew)

Au revoire Harriet. We won't forget you.
Bill

PS: To my sister Milli: It was a delight to again greet our cousin Jerry Yates & his wife Helene. Our brother Ted & I first met Jerry (Bertha's son) in our 1951 trip to Isla de Pinos. Ted, do you remember we gifted Jerry & Lucille's son Charley with small trifles --- maybe jacknives?

Milli: You requested Stu Rough's present address: 24441 Calle Sonora, #105, Laguna Woods CA 92639 - (or possibly 92637?)

(PSS Unfortunately the time stamp on the photographs is unchanged from a few weeks ago when we were in Russia)

Subject: Re: Maybe?

Good evening. I was going to go listen to the Big Band sound at the park nearby, but I don't feel like going out again. We had fun watching the Brown Deer parade. It was much better this year than last year's. Our doggies enjoyed it, too. The participants gave out candies this year and a lot of people just left them on the grass. That makes me mad as it looks messy and the village will probably not allow it again in the future, to avoid littering.

My life as I was growing up? That reminds me of what some friends of the family told me once: They said they always felt sorry for me as while the kids were playing outside, I was always neatly dressed, mostly in white (dress, shoes, socks) and just watching! I was extremely sheltered by my parents and brothers, that much I know. Even when we came to the USA. My girlfriends "loved" to visit our house because I had two brothers to flirt with! Now, when my brothers' friends came over, I had to go into my room; or, if I was wearing slacks, I had to change into a skirt or dress if I stayed around. Boys could not call me on the phone, and life at school was miserable since they had "spies" on me ALL THE TIME! I think I finally rebelled at about 16 1/2. Boys could then visit me at home. No dating. Dances, fine, but mom went with me. Chaperoned to each and every date with my husband for the 3 1/2 years we were engaged. We were allowed, though, to go eat lunch at a nearby restaurant the day we got our marriage license. Married 3 days before my 21st bday.

Our parents loved us very much. I am very sad that I didn't have the chance to learn practical stuff from mom. She was a great woman, mother, and wife. Once Al and I were married, we never lived close to them. For the first 2 years, though, it was only about 35 miles away so they came on weekends to help us out, visit, etc. Mom loved my cats. Dad loved to fix things around our mobile home. Their wedding gift to us was the down payment so we could buy it and live close to the university in Boca Raton. The management of the park was always executing new bylaws and ordinances. We started paying $61 a month for the lot we rented, and in 18 months were up to upwards of $100.

Dad came to the US in June 1960, and mom, my brothers, and I, followed in November 1960. Mom had to go through a lot of tribulations on her own during that time. The last thing we experienced was at the Cuban airport: they didn't allow us to bring our two footlockers, and mom's and my personal belongings were in there. My brothers had their suitcases, so they were o.k. Meaning, she and I had only the clothes we wore! Luckily, our folks in Goulds gave us hand-me-downs and we did fine. We were all split up for sleeping quarters. Nobody there spoke in Spanish, so it was a very difficult time for all of us. Eventually, after a couple of bad accidents in US 1, dad moved us to a house in Miami, closer to his job, and life became more manageable for all. We lived there for about 3 years before they moved to another house, and then later, bought their own. Life was not easy for my parents but we really didn't know that.

Sheltered? Most definitely. My kids have had to teach me a lot of stuff!

Better close now. Life in Cuba...soon.

Love and blessings,
M

BTW: In case you wonder what happened to the footlockers: Once we got to the US, we were told we needed to pay $50 for each. We didn't have "that kind of money" and as soon as dad worked and saved it, we claimed the footlockers. They were lost. They appeared seven years later, at which time Sarah McKeever was contacted in Havana and asked to come in and claim anything we'd want to keep. There was practically nothing left. She salvaged some pictures that we recupped in later years.

#1. Ted Naumann with grandma's half-brother's daughter-in-law on his left. Her name is Juanita. I will contact Kathleen Elton to get the correct name and the name of her husband. I don't recognize the other woman on his right.

#2. Grandpa Yates and Ludovic Jackson (a cousin of Grandma Yates)...

#3. I don't recognize any but the lady holding the baby could be your mom and Joe...The others could be Carmela's daughters???

I left a message for Kathleen (Dolly) to call me.

Ain't it fun to go thru all of those memoirs? Why, why didn't our parents write the names on the back...I guess like us, they think we will live forever!!

So for many generations the story continued about John Shearer Jackson being from Whitehaven but recently discovered documents have shown that he was actually born Jan. 30, 1777 in ST. Mary's Jamaica . His father was Joseph Jackson and mother was Jane Tharp. He eventually shows up in George Town , Grand Cayman and then settles in Botabono where some of his descendants eventually went to Roatan to live.

Several of the founding members of Cayman Connections have spent a lot of time trying to discover more about John Shearer Jacksons parents but I don't think anyone has been able to find documentation Stories written by Alvey, Sr.

My fishing pole had a lot of fun at my expense, and it was o.k., except for the time Olsen hooked me in my ear and ran away leaving me with blood streaming down my face, trailing his fishing line. Old grand aunt Lizzey found me on the road to home and picked me up in her arms. She hurried to take me home and in the process almost tore that ear off. They cut the hook in two to get it out of my ear.

Life was really uncomplicated those days in that village; there were no lights at night except the lamps in the homes. People just sat around telling stories, “some were really tall tales” or just visiting the neighbors.

One day, my brother Herb fell in the water while trying to get in a canoe that was moored at the landings. He was just about drowned by the time he was rescued by a man whom I called as he was walking by. They rolled him over a barrel until he expelled the water, and was revived.

One day, while watching a canoe with full sail racing by, I heard a man say, “Sim is going to capsize his boat if he keeps on like that,” about ten minutes later someone yelled “they’ve capsized!” They were about half mile offshore and they had to swim ashore. Everybody thought that they would be eaten by sharks, but they made it o.k.

My Darling Niece

I recieved your most welcome letter & was so glad to hear from hoping this finds you quite well as it leaves me at present now I got all the dates of birth & death that I had on record besides Kivie I dont Know the date of death as for the grand parents I dont Know theirs only what I heard from grand father myself grand dad jackson was the great grand son of a Scotch man that married a chisolm both of them were white with blue eyes & blond hair he was the nicest old Soul with his golden hair & blue blue eyes I can stiel picture him now and as for grandad yates he was the great grand son of a nice Englishman who ran away from a whaling ship here in Cayman & he had a nice half Indian girl so she got in trouble for him & he left to go away & make money to come & get married but he was lost at sea in a storm so when the baby was born She named him joseph David yates & that is how we come to be yates

but he was a nice old christain & had the prettiest gold colour hair & blue eyes but I dont know their births & dates of death you see I was only 3 year old when he died but I still can remember the first cup of coffee I carried for him how he praised me for been so smart & he told me why I was so brown was because my rascal of grandfather had an Indian girl for his wife so we had good blood it was not negra blood it was Indian well I guess you will get tired of reading this epistle

my bay is still bad god knows but I hope I will still get to come sometime this year this is my last year to work as the Govt is putting off all over 60 so I go too well we had 5 days of revival here oh it was so refreshing Leighton Ford & a team came over for 5 days I guess we will have a Terrible storm here this year it is terrible dry now everything is drying up well darling give my to all the bro & Sis for me & may the dear Lord spare our lives to meet soon

Now I will have to close my letter as my trouble is getting in his spell accept my love & Kisses & to you hubby & daughter & God bless you all is my prayer I am as ever yrs loving aunt Olga's reply to my questions...

Aunt Mercy was one of Grandpa Yates' sisters...she had a retarded or possibly a schizophrenic son that lived with her. She would lock him in a room to keep him from getting out...he would throw fits and possibly hit her also. She had a hard time being a widow and having a son to take care of. He was 45 y.o. when we saw him in 1988.

Square jaws: That's the Indian in us. I wonder where the Indian came from...very interesting?

Bugs:
What you don't know

Special to the News Leader

Did you know fleas have killed more people than all the wars men have ever fought?

It's true. The pest that drives dogs and cats wild can spread the bubonic plague that killed one-fourth of Europe's population during the 14th Century. In fact, pests are known to transmit 15 major disease-causing organisms.

They also spread hundreds of other organisms which can just make your life miserable. Fleas have been around for 60 million years, can jump 30,000 times without stopping and can leap 150 times their own height.

They feed upon external body surfaces much like their relatives: ticks, lice, bedbugs, chiggers, mites, flies and mosquitos.

Mosquitos prefer warm-blooded vertebrates. Certain mosquitos are vectors — organisms that transmit disease germs — and spread encephalitis, yellow fever, dengue and malaria.

Deer ticks are vectors for Lyme disease which was considered a major epidemic in 1993 when more than 8,000 cases were reported.

Most spiders bite, but the Black Widow's sting is said to be 15 times more powerful than that of a rattlesnake. On the underside of this spider is a perfectly formed red 'hourglass' mark.

Scorpions are eight-legged relatives of spiders and attack by whipping their tails forward. They are active at night, hiding during the day, often in sheos, piles of clothing, bedding and in her best friends.

Turner's hard work and attention to detail didn't go unnoticed. In 1983 she was named senior vice president of personnel for Jordan Marsh.

"She loved her work," Zager said. "She's probably in heaven organizing everything."

Most recently, Turner worked in the human resources department at Sound Advice.

Turner, who lived in Pembroke Pines, attended Edison High School and the University of Florida. Her father was Raymon Kibbe, a former general manager of Velda Dairy.

Turner and Zager met 28 years ago when they lived in an apartment complex in North Miami.

"We were young and career-oriented," Zager said. "It was kind of like a big dorm."

But work wasn't everything for Turner.

Friends and family say she loved frogs and collected figurines and other frog-related knickknacks. She also loved her black poodle Trouble, whom she got three years ago.

Zager is survived by her husband Neale Turner, her brother Phil Kibbe and several aunts and nieces.

A memorial for Turner is scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Miami Shores Community Church, 9823 NE 4th Ave. Donations in Turner's memory may be made to Hospice of Southwest Florida, 3028 Caring Way, Port Charlotte, Fla., 33952.

WILLIAM R. CLARK

Former postmaster, avid golfer, volunteer

By KERTING TRUJILLO
Herald Staff Writer

William R. Clark, a longtime Miami postal worker and avid golfer, died Friday in Fort Pierce of natural causes. He was 79.

Born in North Carolina, Clark moved to Miami as a toddler. His father Robert Browning Clark owned Clark Dredging Company, a prominent Miami firm responsible for dredging the bay area where MacArthur Causeway and the Tamiami Canal now exist.

Clark decided not to go into the family business, instead becoming a postal clerk for the U.S. Post Office in Miami. He later retired as postmaster of Fort Pierce.

Clark was introduced to the game of golf by his father at 13, and he quickly became enchanted by the sport. He played golf competitively while a student at Miami Senior High School. After retiring to Franklin, N.C., in 1970, Clark established the Franklin's Golf Association and was a member of the Holly Springs Golf Association.

"He was always an active person," said his son William R. Clark Jr. "It seems like almost everyone knew him."

Clark also was a committed volunteer in his retirement, providing transportation for patients at a North Carolina hospital and delivering food to homebound people through the Meals on Wheels Program. He served as an usher for the First United Methodist Church in Franklin.

In addition to his son William Jr., Clark is survived by wife Bettie; sons James and Robert; daughter Judi; sisters Margaret Hopkins and Catherine Ellinghaus and eight grandchildren.

Ex-Postal Supervisor Yates, 58

Services for Herbert S. Yates, 58, a retired Miami post office supervisor who was active in the credit-union movement in South Florida and held several local and statewide offices, will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the Van Orsdel Gratigny Road Chapel.

YATES

Mr. Yates, who suffered from a respiratory ailment, died Tuesday in a Tallahassee hospital while en route to Louisiana to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Born in Isle of Pines, Cuba, Mr. Yates lived in Milwaukee for many years, where he attained a high school education. He later went to Concordia Lutheran Seminary in Wisconsin but abandoned the idea of entering the pastorate after two years of study.

HE CAME to Miami in 1935 and worked at several jobs including two years as a Miami fireman. In 1942 he joined the Post Office as a clerk and 12 years later was promoted to supervisor.

During his years as a clerk, he was active in the United Federation of Postal Clerks and served as secretary-treasurer of the Miami chapter. For many years he was editor of the organization's monthly publication, "Clerk's Mail."

Mr. Yates also served as state treasurer for the Florida Federation of Postal Clerks before becoming a supervisor.

HE RETIRED from his postal position last April because of illness.

Mr. Yates was described by a colleague as one "who believed in the credit union movement, and a person always willing to help others."

Active in the Miami Postal Service Credit Union, Mr. Yates served as its president for five years and at his death was treasurer.

Until 1965, he was chairman of the stabilization board for the Florida Credit Union League, a statewide organization of credit unions. In January 1965, he was elected to the board of directors of the Peoples Credit Union in North Miami.

MR. YATES lived at 12045 NW Miami Ct. He was a member of North Shore Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Maude; a son, Herbert Jr., of Baton Rouge, La.; a daughter, Janet Clark, of Coral Gables; his father, Atkins Yates, of Goulds; two brothers; four sisters, and three grandchildren.

Burial will be in Dade Memorial Park.

Mr. Yates suffered from arthritis for more than 30 years, and the family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Arthritis Foundation.

Viet Withdrawal Co

By WALTER WHITEHEAD

SAIGON (UPI)—Lead elements of the U.S. 1st Marine Division have begun leaving Vietnam as part of President Nixon's "Phase Four" withdrawal of 50,000 more American GIs from the war zone, military spokesmen said today.

An official announcement said Leathernecks from two engineer battalions and one bridge company assigned to the division are in the process of leaving Da Nang for Camp Pendleton, Calif. The three units total 1,625 men.

Military sources said some 1st Marine Division units will be kept in the war zone past Oct. 15, the date President Nixon has set for completion of the fourth phase of his so-called "Vietnamization" program.

President Nixon has promised to remove 100,000 more Aericans between mid-October and the spring of 1971, leaving only support troops as the South Vietnamese army takes over the fighting.

The Nixon administration's vow to keep U.S. casualties at a minimum during the "Vietnamization" process was reflected Thursday in the abandonment of fire support base Ripcord, where 61 American paratroopers had been killed and 354 wounded since July 1.

The base, overlooking a vital Communist infiltration route on the Laotian border, was judged too costly to maintain despite U.S. Command reports that the troopers had inflicted "very heavy" losses on the guerrillas there.

Some Allied commanders have expressed fears the substantial Marine withdrawals the northern quarter would reduce Allied strength in the stategic region to a dangerously low level.

Two weeks ago the South Vietnamese high command moved a 3,000-man government leatherneck brigade to the area near Da Nang in the first substantial Allied troop reinforceent there in more than two years. A Communist offensive is expected in the region.

Swarms of helicopters swirled through a fusillade of fire Thursday to evacuate the paratroopers from fire support base Ripcord near the A Shau Valley.

One helicopter was shot down, three GIs were killed and 20 wounded in the abandonment of the besieged hilltop base established July 1 to bombard the Communist supply operation in the northern end of the valley.

The "Screaming Eagle" division kept Ripcord's two sister bases in operation six and 16 miles southeast of Ripcord along the A Shau Valley, for they have not been under constant attack like the abandoned outpost was.

Five U.S. helicopters have been shot down at Ripcord.

In a statement announcing the base had been abandoned, the U.S. Command said North Vietnamese forces suffered "very heavy casualties and material losses" around Ripcord. No figures were given.

A North Vietnamese ambush that killed 12 paratroopers and wounded 51 outside the base Wednesday apparently led to the decision to give up the outpost. The ambushers left behind no

New City Is Planned

BY HARLEN BROWN

Thirty people crowded into a trailer in Goulds Wednesday night and began mapping plans for the formation of a new Dade County City, encompassing the area of Goulds.

Many of the people at the meeting were prominent black citizens of the community. The response to a proposed city government was unanimous.

"Everyone enthusiastically endorsed the idea," said Odell Johns.

Joe Tomassi, former Florida City Mayor, attended the meeting and spoke to the group.

A committee of 12 was selected to begin work on plans for a public meeting, to present more fully the ideas and developments toward the end result of incorporation.

"Contact will be made with the University of Miami's Urban planning Center for the purpose of offering us guidance and assistance," said Johns.

"We will also ask city officials from other towns in this area of equivalent size to come forward and present their views on the incorporation, and some of the advantages of local government," Johns said.

"I have spoke to County officials and they see no reason

In Five-Day Period

Traffic Violations Total

By HARLEN BROWN
Staff Writer

The energy crisis has not hit the transporting of school children in South Dade, "but the parents driving their children to and from school might hit somebody unless more care and awareness are shown."

Mrs. Charlotte Collins, head of the Safety Committee of the Whispering Pines Elementary School PTA, called on her committee to make a traffic survey and came up with some astonishing results.

The survey conducted over a five school day period from Nov 13-19, found parents guilty of nearly 500 traffic violations while bringing their children to school and picking them up.

Three women were assigned to check traffic in front of the school, at the kindergarten exit and on Caribbean Boulevard during the peak traffic periods, 7:45 to 8:30 a.m., 1:45 to 2:30 p.m. and 2:45 to 3:15 p.m.

The violations were broken down into separate categories and some of the mothers taking the survey added their own thoughts on what they saw.

The violations were: excessive speed, 90; illegal left turn, 74; blocking driveway, 41; parking in the wrong direction on a one way street, 4; double parking, 60; parked in a bus loading zone, 17; stopping in the crosswalk, 20; illegal or improper parking,

PUBLIC address system in rear of South Dade School office did not go untouched as vandals dumped it over and ripped out some of the wiring. (See Page story and other pictures.)

EASTER CELEBRATION

March 22, 2008

"I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die."

+St. Paul Lutheran Church 10700 S.W. 56th Street, Miami, Florida 33165+

Hymn "I know That My Redeemer Lives" LSB, 461

OPENING VERSICLES

C: The name of the Lord is to be praised. Psalm 113:3

PSALM 23

L: He makes me lie down in green pastures. C: He leads me beside still waters.
L: He restores my soul. C: He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
L: Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, C: I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
L: You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies C: you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
L: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life C: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Epistle: 1 Corinthians 15: 12-22, 42-44, 53-58.

Gospel: Saint John 20: 1-18

Hymn: "Amazing Grace", LSB, 744 Congregation: Verses 1-4 in English; followed by solo on verse 4 in Spanish; concluding with verse 5 in English.

Sermon: "I am the resurrection and the Life" (Saint John 11:17-27)

REMEMBRANCE OF BAPTISM

L: In Holy Baptism Alvey A. Yates Sr was clothed with the robe of Christ's righteousness that covered all of his sin. Saint Paul says: "Do you know

1 Corinthians 15:12-22, 42-44, 53-58.

[12] But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? [13] If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. [14] And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith. [15]
More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised. [16] For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. [17] And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. [18] Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. [19] If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men. [20] But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. [21] For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. [22] For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.. [42] So will it be with the resurrection of the dead. The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable; [43] it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; [44] it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body... [53] For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. [54] When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."[55] Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"[56] The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. [57] But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. [58] Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Well here is Mordril's birth registry, which is by no means proof, but this is the way almost everyone else has spelt it. I have seen it spelled Modrial too. Remember this is a family with Scottish roots. The Scots pronounce their R's differently.
Thanks for the dates. I'll bet this is at least close to the birth order, so maybe the picture is not Mordril & Maude.

FYI - Geraldine spelled her brother's name - Moddriel - so that's what I use.

This is by no means conclusive but I have Moddriel & Maude's kids as:

Florence b. 12 Dec. 1915
Paul b. ca 1917
Will b. ca 1918
Henry b. ca 1920
Bernice b. ca 1922
Lydia b. ca 1925
Millie b. ca 1926
Lenore Clarabelle b. ca 1927
Irvin b. ca 1929

It is obviously not correct according to the picture! I'll keep trying but don't know how I'll figure it out.

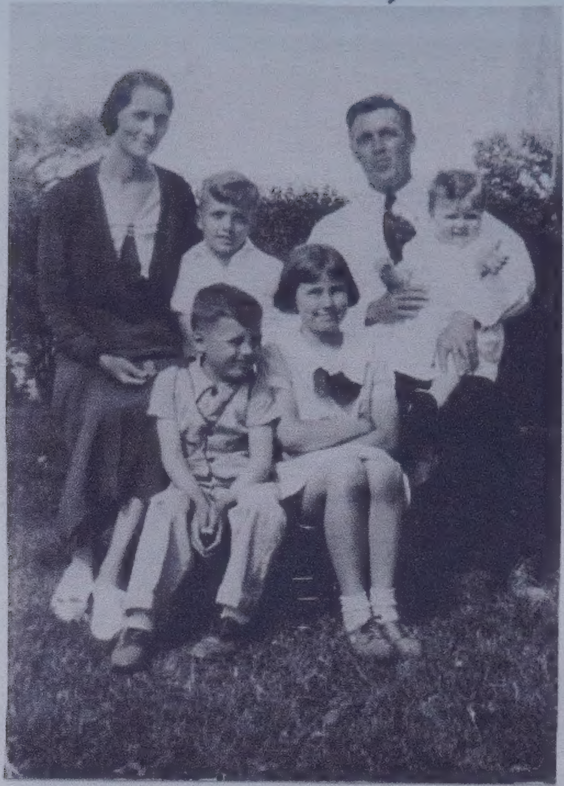
Memories of Watertown



Our Family in the front yard of my Grandparents' home. Summer of 1936

The 100 mile trip to Watertown was a big annual event.

We usually had a reunion of all my dad's brothers and sisters + families.

The big dining table could seat 12 or more and grandma cooked alot of pies, + apple kuchen, and sometimes made Strawberry Schaum Torte Yum !!!

Betty is not walking yet.

Your Inspector: Mark Bishton
Over 10 years of providing quality building inspections to Southwestern Indiana

Over 34 years in the home building industry. This includes nearly every aspect from digging trenches to managing design build projects over one million dollars. Most of my career has been spent building single family homes.
It would be nice to inspect homes with x-ray vision! I am not blessed with that but I can visualize the components in nearly any building assembly that I see. I know what the order of assembly needed to be and where the inherent errors are likely to be found, what kinds of subtle hidden damage may exist and very importantly what needs to be done to correct a defect to give the component or system the kind of function and longevity you should be able to reasonably expect.

May the abiding joy of Christmas fill your heart and lift your spirits as you remember God's "Forever Gift," the Christchild, sent to bless us all!

Dear Family and Friends, Christmas, 2005

Snow is still falling softly this morning, after a 7 inch snowfall last night. What a lovely and peaceful sight it is as we look out on that wonderland of white from the comfort of our cozy home. As we both reflect on the blessings of our combined 163 years of life, 57 years of a loving marriage and our gracious and supportive family we are filled with the deepest gratitude. God has been so good to us!

This year Harry and I again enjoyed the warm hospitality of my brother Ted and wife Shirley in Punta Gorda FL. Thankfully, the hurricanes of last season had not injured them and their house remained sturdy in spite of a damaged roof, windows, and pool cage. While we were there Harry was just beginning to show symptoms of weakness in his legs. This turned out to be a serious heart valve problem. In May he had a heart catherization to determine the state of his arteries and in early June he underwent open heart surgery, with valve replacement, double bypass and a pacemaker implant. His recovery has seemed slow, but with the help of rehab therapy his legs are recovering strength and he walks with assistance. He's also had successful surgery for cataracts on his eyes and has been fitted for hearing aids on both ears. Not quite a bionic man – he still has his own warm human heart!

We've had some joyful family events this year. They include the marriage of Dan and Becky's son Zach to his lovely Diana, the graduation of Dave and Mary's son Jon with a degree in auto mechanics, and the attainment by daughter Emily of a degree in Horticulture. (She has her own gardening consultant business and a website – greenlightgardening.com in Seattle.) Other grandchildren - - Gabe in North Carolina, Liza and Emily Ann in Illinois - are also doing well in their work and/or studies. We thank God that all are blessed with good health and are prospering in their chosen fields. Our children, Dan in Ft Wayne and Mark, Dave and Emily who live farther away, have all been faithful in visiting us during Harry's surgery and helping out in countless caring and creative ways.

Our church, Promise (Lutheran) Ministries, is thriving and brings us much joy in it's sincere commitment to Christ and the genuineness of its care for the community. We love the sweet atmosphere of praise and worship in the services and the warmth of fellowship we feel there. Hope Alive is also thriving and moving forward in its mission to emotionally hurting people. I still write grant requests for them and by God's grace they've received much support. Added counseling staff and the newly remodeled residential home will soon provide help for eight more hurting women to find healing for their spirits, new hope for the future, and joy in a truly purpose-filled life.

We pray that you too find fresh faith, hope and joy each day, as we send you our,

Love, Harry and Milli
